	Endorsement.—The original version of the film was refused a certificate by the Board on 22nd December 1936 on the ground that its moral tone was low. A revised version of the film containing the following changes was certified by the Board on 20th January 1937:— (a) The entire scene of seduction of Sudha (including of course her pregnancy) by Niranjanrai has been omitted from the film. The new scene now substituted for it shows Niranrai merely kissing Sudha and the Villain Ramesh trying to ruin Sudha by spreading false rumours about her. (b) Sudha is now shown marrying Sharad instead of the old Niranjanrai. (c) The scene of whipping of Lily by Mr. Honey-moon is omitted. A love scene between Sudha and Sharad and a fighting scene between Sharad and Ramesh have now been added to reel 10 of the revised version (800 feet).
